

Contents

Dedication	i
Introduction	1
Gullah Communities The Customs, Habits and Folkways of a People	4
Atlantic Beach – The Glory Years	11
The Hill on Myrtle Beach	17
McKenzie Beach (Magnolia Beach) A Resort that faded away	19
Conway, an Old Historic Riverfront Town	21
Sandy Island – A Pristine Isolated Island	27
Georgetown’s Gullah Communities	36
Charleston, a Historic City	39
Beaufort County St. Helena Island – The Penn Center	41
Hilton Head Island – The Freedmen’s Village At Mitchellville	43
Daufuskie Island – Gullah Communities Gone	45
History Abounds All Over – Old Plantations, Villages, Churches	49
Same Neighborhoods – Subsequent Generations	65

Change – But Not The Altering of Certain Characteristics in The Community	69
A Deep Faith in These Bible Belt Communities	71
The Value of Work, in Addition to Faith	79
A Light Ahead	83
We Made a Difference	84
Preserve Your Heritage Know Your History and Culture	89
A Knowledge of One’s Culture and History	91
There is No Free Ride	93
A Roaring in The Night Restless Souls A-Wandering	95
Unity - A By-Product of Certain Key Ingredients	99
Economic Development for a Better Community	101
Carolina - Still Home to Some Historically Black Colleges and Universities	102
Gullah History and Culture is Alive and Flourishing Along The Carolina Lowcountry	114
Index	126